SOURCE: A former Cuban IS officer who served with the Cuban Intelligence Service until April 1964.

Headquarters Comments:

The following report is one of a series containing personality information provided by the source and includes supplemental information from the records of this Agency.

It is requested that the addressees take no action on any of the individuals mentioned in the personality reports without first checking with this Agency.

Source identified a photograph of Jose Antonio GARCIA Lara, aka "Nico," as a Cuban Intelligence Officer of the Direccion General de Inteligencia (General Directorate of Intelligence - DGI) in Mexico. He is the Commercial Attaché at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16

Headquarters Comments:

1. A report dated 17 January 1962, from three untested sources, stated that Antonio Garcia was one of several Cuban G-2 agents now (January 1962) in Mexico and planning to go to the United States.
2. A fairly reliable source, in a report dated 22 May 1962, stated that Jose Antonio "Nico" GARCIA Lara is assigned to the commercial office of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City, however, he does little work for this section. He is a member of the Cuban G-2 and an opportunist with a very bad reputation.

3. In a report dated 9 June 1962, from a usually reliable source, it was reported that Antonio Vito GARCIA, Commercial Attaché of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, GARCIA is colored, married to a white girl, and is extremely free concessions. Before the revolution he was in exile in Mexico. This same source stated that GARCIA is a communist. He said that GARCIA is controlled by Communists who cannot agree on what Cuba is to be. GARCIA has a sister who is a nun in the United States. In a 20 June 1962 report this same source positively identified GARCIA as a Cuban G-2 agent in Mexico and added that GARCIA is a close friend of Osman CIENFUEGOS and Ramon PIRESIRO, Deputy Chief of G-2.

4. On 4 July 1962, a usually reliable source gave the following biographic information on Antonio GARCIA Lara:

GARCIA, a G-2 agent working in Mexico, arrived in Mexico in early May 1962 as the Commercial Attaché of the Cuban Embassy. He is a close friend of Osman CIENFUEGOS, Ramon PIRESIRO, and Simon CUFNCA. GARCIA is a Negro, about six feet tall, 170 pounds, and is married to a white girl named Nelly. He belongs to the Juventud Autentico and is known by the pseudonym Nico GARCIA. He arrived in Mexico with specific instructions from CIENFUEGOS to recruit Mexican technicians and to provide them with necessary funds. It seems probable that this is only a guise and that the men are being taken to Cuba solely to be trained as agitators. GARCIA spends little time in his office, but is busy most of the day making contacts on the street. Since he lived in Mexico for a year and a half previously, he knows a good deal about the country. He also is in contact with members of the Spanish and Mexican Communist Parties and with students of leftist affiliations.

5. A usually reliable source with good contacts in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City gave the following information on Antonio GARCIA Lara; the report was dated 13 July 1962:

Antonio GARCIA Lara, Commercial Attaché of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City, arrived in Mexico on 23 April 1962. Before coming to Mexico, GARCIA held important positions with the Cuban government in Havana. He worked for the Ministry of Agriculture and the Ministry of Public Works (MINCP). GARCIA is a member of the Cuban G-2 but did not attend the Cuban G-2 school. He did attend the diplomatic school, but was assigned to Mexico before he graduated. One of GARCIA's duties in Mexico was to assist the Cuban Embassy in hiring technical experts to go to Cuba. He was also to handle commercial matters and investigate the manipulation of $200,000 U.S. in connection with the purchase of automobile parts, cement, etc.

3. An unknown source, in a report dated 25 July 1962, said that Jose Antonio GARCIA Lara, aka "Nico" GARCIA, is the Cuban Commercial Attaché in Mexico. GARCIA was born about 1929. His mother, who is seventy-six years old, resides in Habana, his father is deceased. He has three sisters, one (Mrs) GARCIA is a Nun living in the United States, the other two live in Habana. GARCIA was married in Habana in 1960 to Maria Elena LARIA Baluja (white), they have one child, Tatiana, and are expecting another. His brother-in-law, Doctor Ramon LARIA Baluja, resides at 305 West 93rd Street, apartment number 605A, New York City. GARCIA was previously employed by the Army G-2 (with which he is no longer affiliated, according to him), Ministry of Agriculture and the Ministry of Oil, publicas. He has a secondary school education and attended the "Escuela de Diplomacia," but did not finish as he was transferred to Mexico. GARCIA entered Mexico in 1957 in exile and returned to Cuba in 1959. He arrived in Mexico in his present capacity on 23 April 1962. His address is San Borja 1357, Col Del Valle, Mexico, D. F.
7. In a 3 August 1962 report, from a usually reliable source, it was stated that Antonio GARCIA Lara returned to Mexico from Habana on 3 August 1962. GARCIA told source that he returned to Mexico with orders to take over the commercial activities from Ramon CUENCA Montoto.
8. A usually reliable source, in a report dated 20 November 1962, stated that Jose Antonio GARCIA Lara, his wife and their two children were leaving Mexico for Habana on 20 November 1962 via Cubana Airlines. GARCIA planned to stay in Habana approximately three weeks. A report dated 27 November 1962 stated that GARCIA actually left Mexico on 23 November 1962.
9. Jose Antonio GARCIA Lara, according to a usually reliable source in a report dated 24 January 1963, arrived in Mexico from Habana on 21 January 1963.
10. In a report dated 16 April 1963, from a usually reliable source, it was stated that Jose Antonio GARCIA Lara, passport number 62-213, and his wife left Mexico on 15 April 1963 for Habana. GARCIA relinquished to the airport, and had been in Mexico City since his return from Cuba. Both of the Cuban diplomats who were with him at his villa were reportedly in Havana.

11. A family reliable source, in a report dated 16 September 1963, stated that there had been a Cuban embassy in person of Lt. Col. Cesar GARCIA in Mexico City. This source stated that Antonio GARCIA, aka "Nico," a young man, remained at the embassy. GARCIA is a former member of the Jefe del Autentico, an opportunist, and it is said that he is a member of the Cuban Intelligence Service in Mexico.
12. An airlist, dated 12 October 1963, revealed that Jose Al. GARCIA Lara, diplomatic passport number 32/213, arrived in Mexico City from Havana.
13. A usually reliable source reported that on 8 March 1964, Lt. Col. Antonio GARCIA Lara left Mexico City for Havana. He returned to Mexico City on 29 March 1964.
14. Lt. Col. Antonio GARCIA Lara, according to a usually reliable source, arrived in Madrid on the night of 25 May 1964.
15. A usually reliable source reported on 24 June 1964, that GARCIA Lara is under transfer orders to Havana. On 3 July 1964, it was reported that GARCIA and his family left Mexico City for Havana on 2 July 1964, and had left before they had finished packing, which was being completed by their maid. GARCIA had an intelligence escort up to the time of his departure.
16. A usually reliable source, in a report dated 9 July 1964, states that persons inquiring for GARCIA Lara on 3 July 1964, were told by Camilo LORENACH, of the Cuban Embassy, that GARCIA had to leave because of illness, that a period of rest had been recommended, that he would have to remain in bed, and that he took his whole family with him since he would stay away for some time. Federico ALVAREZ, also of the Cuban Embassy, told source that GARCIA is on a permanent transfer.
